

Open call for trainers for the Cultural Transformation Lab

We are looking for experienced trainers for the Cultural Transformation Lab. You will design and deliver lectures, workshops, labs, and courses for cultural managers, both dab hands and beginners.

House of Europe

House of Europe is an EU-funded programme fostering professional and creative exchange between Ukrainians and their colleagues in EU*1 countries.

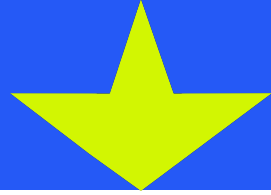

The programme focuses on different professional fields: culture and creative industries, education and youth work, social entrepreneurship, and media. An additional priority is put on supporting the national minorities of Ukraine.

1

This encompasses 20+ separate programme lines enabling to keep working despite the war, to carry out personal projects, or to enrol in courses, conferences, and internships in the EU*. The programme funds cultural cooperation and literature translation between Ukraine and the EU*, along with the revitalisation of cultural infrastructure. House of Europe supports the safeguarding of Ukrainian cultural heritage and the development of creative and educational start-ups. Various learning and matchmaking opportunities such as Digital Labs, workshops, discussions, conferences, and hackathons are offered.

Implementation of House of Europe is led by Goethe-Institut Ukraine.

¹ Here and further in the text whenever marked with *: plus the United Kingdom. The EU countries include Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Republic of Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden.

Cultural Transformation Lab

Cultural Transformation Lab, a series of practical education and networking events aimed at supporting Ukrainian cultural managers, civil society, and cultural actors residing outside of large cities and regional centres in times of war.

The Lab is carried out by Goethe-Institut Ukraine and is part of an EU-funded programme House of Europe.

Task
