

EBRD Literature Prize 2021

Submissions

European (including UK) publishers with a valid ISBN and the price printed in the currency of a European country are invited to submit translated works of literary fiction (including collections of short stories by a single author) originally written in any language, whether official or minority, of an EBRD country of operations.*

To be considered for the competition, books must have been published in English and published in Europe, for the first time, between 15 November 2019 - 31 December 2020.

The deadline for submission for this year's competition is 27 November 2020.
