Individual Project Grants

1. House of Europe

House of Europe is a new EU-funded programme fostering professional and creative exchange between Ukrainians and their colleagues in EU*¹ countries. The programme focuses on different professional fields: culture and creative industries, education, health, social entrepreneurship, media, and youth.

This encompasses 20+ separate programme lines enabling to go for professional events, internships, and networking in the EU*, or to enrol in study tours, residencies, trainings, and other forms of support. House of Europe funds cultural coproductions and cooperations between Ukrainian and EU* organisations, along with the development of cultural infrastructure and artistic concepts for youth in Ukraine. Finally, the programme offers various youth camps and an intra-Ukrainian university exchange.

Implementation of House of Europe is led by Goethe-Institut Ukraine, with the British Council, Institut français, and Czech Centres as consortium partners.

2. Individual Project Grants

These grants support personal projects involving the EU*. You can get up to EUR 4,000 to launch the podcast, create a course, pay for an internship, buy a ticket to an international conference or carry out thousands of other ideas. Engaging ideas pushing you out of your comfort zone and on to professional development is what we are looking for.

The project should have an international dimension. If you're thinking of participating in a workshop, consider finding a fitting offer at a UK educational platform. If you're planning on launching a blog, think about interviewing EU professionals.

Grants support professionals in culture and creative industries, education, health, social entrepreneurship, media, and youth work.

3. What is an individual project?

- A project with a focus on your professional growth bringing you new experience, skills, and acquaintances
- A new project not related to the everyday tasks at your workplace
- A project involving experts or organisations from the EU*

4. What can be an individual project?

- Participation in fee-based skill development programmes offered by organisations from the EU*: online courses, workshops, masterclasses, internships, mentoring programmes, etc.
- Participation in fee-based events offered by organisations from the EU*: online conferences, networking events, forums, residencies, etc.
- Conduction of online surveys in the EU*
- Remote research in archives, libraries, museums, institutes, laboratories in the EU*
- Design of skill development events for Ukrainian peers featuring experts from the EU*: online workshops, master classes, lectures, podcasts, blogs, etc.
- Design of projects to present your ideas and expertise to peers from the EU*: online workshops, masterclasses, lectures, digital exhibitions, performances, podcasts, blogs, etc.
- Design of events for peers from the EU* and Ukraine: online round-table discussions, hackathons, networking events, forums, conferences, etc.
- Development of creative, research, and educational projects in collaboration with colleagues from the EU*

- Other projects that do not fall under these categories, but will be beneficial for you. We encourage innovative, outside-the box, and experimental ideas.

5. Can I have a couple examples of real-life individual projects?

We have already supported 41 ideas. For instance:

- An international online conference on art residencies for Ukrainian cultural managers. You can find the full list of personal projects in the sphere of culture and creative industries in our Facebook post.
- A series of consultations with British tutors for a university teacher providing him with the knowledge to design a course about organisational culture and anti-corruption activities. You can find the full list of personal projects in the sphere of education in our Facebook post.
- A series of lectures on pre-hospital emergency medicine, created by a Ukrainian doctor with the assistance of EU experts. You can find the full list of personal projects in the sphere of health in our Facebook post.
- A series of lectures and a workshop for media held in cooperation with the Polish journalists and a local cultural organisation. You can find the full list of personal projects in the sphere of media in our Facebook post.
- A course on international exchange programmes for Ukrainian youth organisations amplified by a workshop with an expert from Latvia. You can find the full list of personal projects in the sphere of youth work in our Facebook post.
- A series of workshops furthering social entrepreneurship in the villages organised together with mentors and social entrepreneurs from the UK.

6. What should one keep in mind?

- Due to the pandemic, you can only interact with the EU* remotely. Please opt for online events, as we will not be able to fund you travelling to the EU* to visit your peers or visa versa.
- Your project can consist of several activities as long as they are linked logically and form a cohesive unit. For example, you may participate in an online conference and afterwards hold a workshop to share new knowledge with peers.

- You or your organisation cannot profit from the project. You cannot ask for an honorarium for yourself or contract the organisation you work at.

7. What is the duration of the project?

This grant is for short-duration projects: you will have up to six months to implement your idea and get done with reporting.

You can start working on the project in August 2021 and should finish it by the end of January 2021.

Any changes must be negotiated in advance and may be granted only in exceptional cases.

B. Who can apply?

Professionals that:

- Are eager to implement an inspirational personal project that will become a professional challenge for them
- Are ready to become assume all the management – you cannot apply in a team

² We may exceptionally consider individual applications by stateless persons, refugees, etc. You should provide confirmation of your long-term residence in Ukraine. It is always a case-by-case decision.

We have defined a detailed list of target groups for each sector. Please check whether you belong to one of them in the document with the eligible categories for Individual Project Grants.

10. What legal form is needed?

You can apply as a sole proprietor with corresponding economic activity codes. Note that we cannot award grants to a third party with a status of a sole proprietor. This means we will not be able to transfer the money to your family member or friend.

If you are a natural person, you must undertake an individual project in collaboration with a legal entity, that will apply on your behalf and will be the responsible party in the project implementation, including reporting.

Only organisations, which have the right to receive grant support, are eligible to be an applying organisation: NGO, Limited Liability Company, state university, charity fund, etc. You must receive an informed consent from the head of the applying organisation to submit this grant application.

11. What is the amount of a grant?

The amount of a grant is from EUR 1,000 to EUR 4,000.

You must report for all the expenses indicated in the budget. We suggest indicating only those expenses you will be able to support with bills, agreements, and other financial documents.

Any changes in the financial planning will need to be agreed in advance. Otherwise, we will not be able to reimburse them.

12. Which expenses are covered by the grant?

14. How and when will the grant be paid out?

We will transfer the funds in two instalments to your private person-entrepreneur's bank account or the bank account of the organisation that applied on your behalf.

The first instalment of 75 % of the grant is sent upon signing the grant agreement. To receive the rest of the sum, you are expected to carry out the project and provide a final financial report. This means you have to cover some of the expenses yourself. However, we will reimburse them once all the reporting on the project is completed.

The final grant amount will be calculated based on your actual expenses, backed with invoices or other forms of payment request and confirmation.

The amount of grant will be paid in UAH according to the Goethe-Institut currency exchange rate as of the day of the money transfer. Note that all expenses in the final financial report will be converted to EUR according to the internal exchange rate of Goethe-Institut.

If you fail to comply with the grant conditions and grant agreement requirements, you will have to return the full grant amount to the House of Europe. You can check the document beforehand: please download the grant agreement template.
