

Individual Project Grants

Eligible categories of professionals and priority topics

Sector of culture and creative industries

- Managers, curators, cultural operators, experts, researchers, or cultural entrepreneurs in the fields of music, theatre, dance, film, design, fashion, visual arts and photography, audio-visual arts, crafts, art market, museums, galleries, libraries, publishing and literature, festivals, creative hubs, cultural heritage, archives, restoration and conservation
- Artists or creative professionals working in the fields of music, theatre, dance, film, and other performing arts, visual arts and photography, audio-visual arts, crafts, sculpture, media art, concept art, literature, advertising
- Architects, landscape architects, or urban planners

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- European visibility for cultural projects
- Network development with EU and UK counterparts
- Exchange on decentralised cultural policies in Ukraine and the EU
- Development of digital formats of projects and other relevant COVID-19 response actions

Sector of education

1

Teaching staff at

- secondary school;
- vocational education or training institution;
- institution of higher education;
- postgraduate further education;
- non-formal education institution.

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- Best practices in educational management and enhancement of management skills
- Exposure to professional cultures outside Ukraine
- EU and UK practices and principles in education approaches
- Inclusion in education
- New Ukrainian School reform and competence-based learning
- Foreign languages and multilingual education
- Best practices of online education

Sector of health

- Doctors or nurses specialising in primary, secondary, and tertiary care, emergency or palliative medicine
- Managers or employees of a patient organisation

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- Modernisation of procedures; international clinical protocols
- Improvement of health care staff skills and competences
- Support of colleagues from EU country or the UK on specialised topics, use of modern equipment
- Patient-oriented approach
- Medical ethics

Sector of media

2

- Managers of regional or local media
- Journalists and editors of regional or local media
- Cultural journalists
- Economic journalists
- Investigative journalists
- Fact-checkers

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- Countering the influx of false and manipulative information and hybrid warfare
- Promotion of good values and best practices; journalistic ethics
- Convergence journalism (multimedia journalism)
- Financial sustainability and independence of media
- Culture journalism
- Economic journalism

Sector of social entrepreneurship*

- Founders of social enterprises, managers and employees in managerial positions of existing social enterprises (juridical person registered, confirmation of sales)
- Trainers, mentors, and university professors who work in the field of social entrepreneurship

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- Network development between social entrepreneurs in Ukraine and EU and the UK
- Scaling/multiplying impact of social enterprises
- Increasing capacity and professionalization of existing social enterprises
- Promoting social entrepreneurship across disciplines, curriculum development

4

Sector of youth work

- Managers and employees of youth centres, youth non-profit organisations, hubs and clusters
- Youth workers of the united territorial communities, regional, district and municipal state organisations

Preference will be given to the activities addressing the following topics:

- Network development between leaders of youth sector in Ukraine and EU and the UK
- Development of new opportunities of youth exchange between Ukraine and EU
- Capacity building of youth non-profit organisations
- Inclusion in youth sector

*Social entrepreneurship is a type of entrepreneurship that has both an economic effect and a measurable social impact. This means that 5-10% of the company's income should go to social purposes and / or 30% of employees should belong to the socially vulnerable category and / or the main product should be aimed at solving a social problem.